Students who have study periods in the library this year will be pleasantly surprised by the attractively furnished seating and relaxed atmosphere, as well as by the new wall-to-wall carpeting.

For the 5th year students, the success of last year's voluntary attendance program will enable the same privilege to be extended once again, starting on September 21. However, parents will again have the right to make the final decision as to whether their son or daughter may participate in this program, as consent slips will be sent home with the students concerned in advance of September 21st.

STUDENT - CITIZEN - TEACHER COMMITTEE

During the past year, the Ontario Government has passed legislation which encourages schools to establish committees of students, adults and teachers. The primary purpose of such a committee is to establish another means of communication between the community and the school.

Schreiber High School is attempting to have such a committee formed. This committee will be comprised of: - three Schreiber High School students; three adults not directly involved in formal education and three teachers. Volunteers are sought in each of the categories. It is anticipated that the members will discuss educational matters collect opinions from individuals and groups in the community and make pertinent recommendations.

Readers from Rosspport, Terrace Bay and Schreiber are urged to volunteer for service on this committee. You may indicate your willingness to serve by telephoning 824-2555 and submitting your name. It is expected that there will be more than three volunteers in each classification and that a random selection will be used to obtain the committee members.

it was rather hard to part with my parents but the farther I got from Winnipeg the less I thought about them.

When we arrived in Churchill we were taken to the Jamboree site which was called Camp Nanook or Camp Polar Bear. Speaking of Polar Bears some were roaming around about 10 miles from the camp and I sure didn't want one of those critters for a tent mate.

Camp soon was a beehive of activity since on September the Queen would officially open the camp. On the day it was to open everybody dressed in their best and waited for the Queen to arrive by cavalcade. She made a short speech and trumpeters played and the flags went up the masts and the Jamboree was open.

The Royal Family was dressed in white and blue, the arctic colors. As they walked through the camp they talked to as many of the boys as possible

On our tour of Churchill the patrol I was in went to Fort Prince of Wales and as we were going across the straight we saw a school of White Whales, strong and free. At Fort Prince of Whales I saw a 6 ton cannon which could shoot 5 lbs. of shot 2,000 feet. When we got back to camp we ate and went to bed since we were to leave at eight the next morning.

After taking down our tents we looked at the barren lands around us. Once it was dotted with hundred of tents but now it was bare. And to think not long before it was a small town. We boarded the train and headed home with pleasant memories of the Second Arctic and Northern Jamboree.
