House System, the format of the Students' Council has been revised. For the 1970-71 School year, the Council will be comprised of a Junior and Senior Representative of each House. From this group of eight, a chairman and vice-chairman will be selected. The treasurer, secretary and social convenor are elected from either within the council of eight or from the student body at large.

The initial stages of the formation of the new council began on Friday, September 18th, when the following students were elected to run for office on the council of eight: CANUCK HOUSE - Darlene Fummerton and Mary Clara Coupal versus Carol Webb and Linda Fontaine. IROQUOIS HOUSE - Ron Chicoine and Debbie Cook versus Beth Ross and Rosemary McParland. MOHAWK HOUSE - Kevin Scott and Carolyn Glad versus Glen Pitkanen and Paul Caccamo. OTTAWA HOUSE - Craig Fischer and Karen Guina versus Alan Turner and Janice Cluett.

Campaigning takes place on September 21st, 22nd and 23rd. Thursday morning, September 24th, voting will occur, with the new slate of eight officers holding their first meeting in the afternoon.
