

WILLS-LAWRENCE VOWS EXCHANGED IN COMMUNITY CHURCH

Pink and white carnations graced the Chancel on September 5th, at 3 p.m., when Lynda Mae Lawrence and Derek John Wills exchanged their wedding vows. Rev. E.C. Prinselaar officiated, with Mrs. M. Simmer at the organ.

Lynda is the daughter of Mrs. J. Lawrence and Derek is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wills.

Escorted down the aisle by Mr. K. Wills, the bride was given in marriage by her mother.

The bride's gown was a formal white French crepe, featuring two lace panels down the front, matching lace on the lily pointed sleeves, Mandarin collar of lace, with French crepe train falling softly from the shoulders, with lace forming a scalloped border. She wore a cluster of organza flowers with seed pearl trim in her hair, and a three tiered shoulder length veil. The bride's bouquet was pink Sweetheart Roses with Lily of the Valley and pink streamers decorated with Lily of the Valley.

Mrs. Jean Fisher, the bride's sister was Matron of Honour and Mrs. Joanne Moore as bridesmaid, were gowned alike in peau de soie, with Empire waist line and Jewel neckline and matching chiffon sleeves. Mrs. Fisher's gown was in brilliant blue, and Mrs. Moore was in sunshine yellow. Each wore a matching peau de soie bow in their hair. They carried white mums, with long white streamers.

Charlene Yates, younger niece of the bride, as Flower Girl, wore a floor length Tangerine A line peau de soie gown with matching bow in her hair, and carried mums with green streamers.

Michael Moore was the best man and ushers were Wallace Fisher Jr. and Steve Nickoluk, Jr.

For a reception in the Masonic Hall, Mrs. Lawrence chose a three piece blue Double Knit Suit with white accessories, and pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Wills wore a three piece Green Double Knit Suit with white trim, brown accessories and a large bronze carnation corsage.

The Toast to the Bride was given by her uncle, Jack Yates and the guest book was circulated by her niece, Caroline Yates.

Servitors were mesdames Pam Jones, Marion Burns, Mary Clare Kennedy, Dorothy Ballentine, Addie Dailey and Paige Legace.

For a trip to the west coast, Lynda donned a pink Crimpknit three piece suit, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Prior to her wedding, Lynda was honoured at a shower held at the Community Church. Hostess Mrs. Isabel Deloronde, and by the girls of Kimberly Clark Staff at a party.

Out of town guests included the groom's sister, Mrs. Janet Jeanneret, Port Credit; her two sons Mark and Chris; Mrs. Jemmelta Wills, Mr. and Mrs. T. Dinford and daughter Maureen; Terry Saunders, Diane Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Koika, Mrs. C. Burntull, Mrs. S. Hanlon, Mrs. Betty Linnert, Mrs. M. Maley all of Thunder Bay.

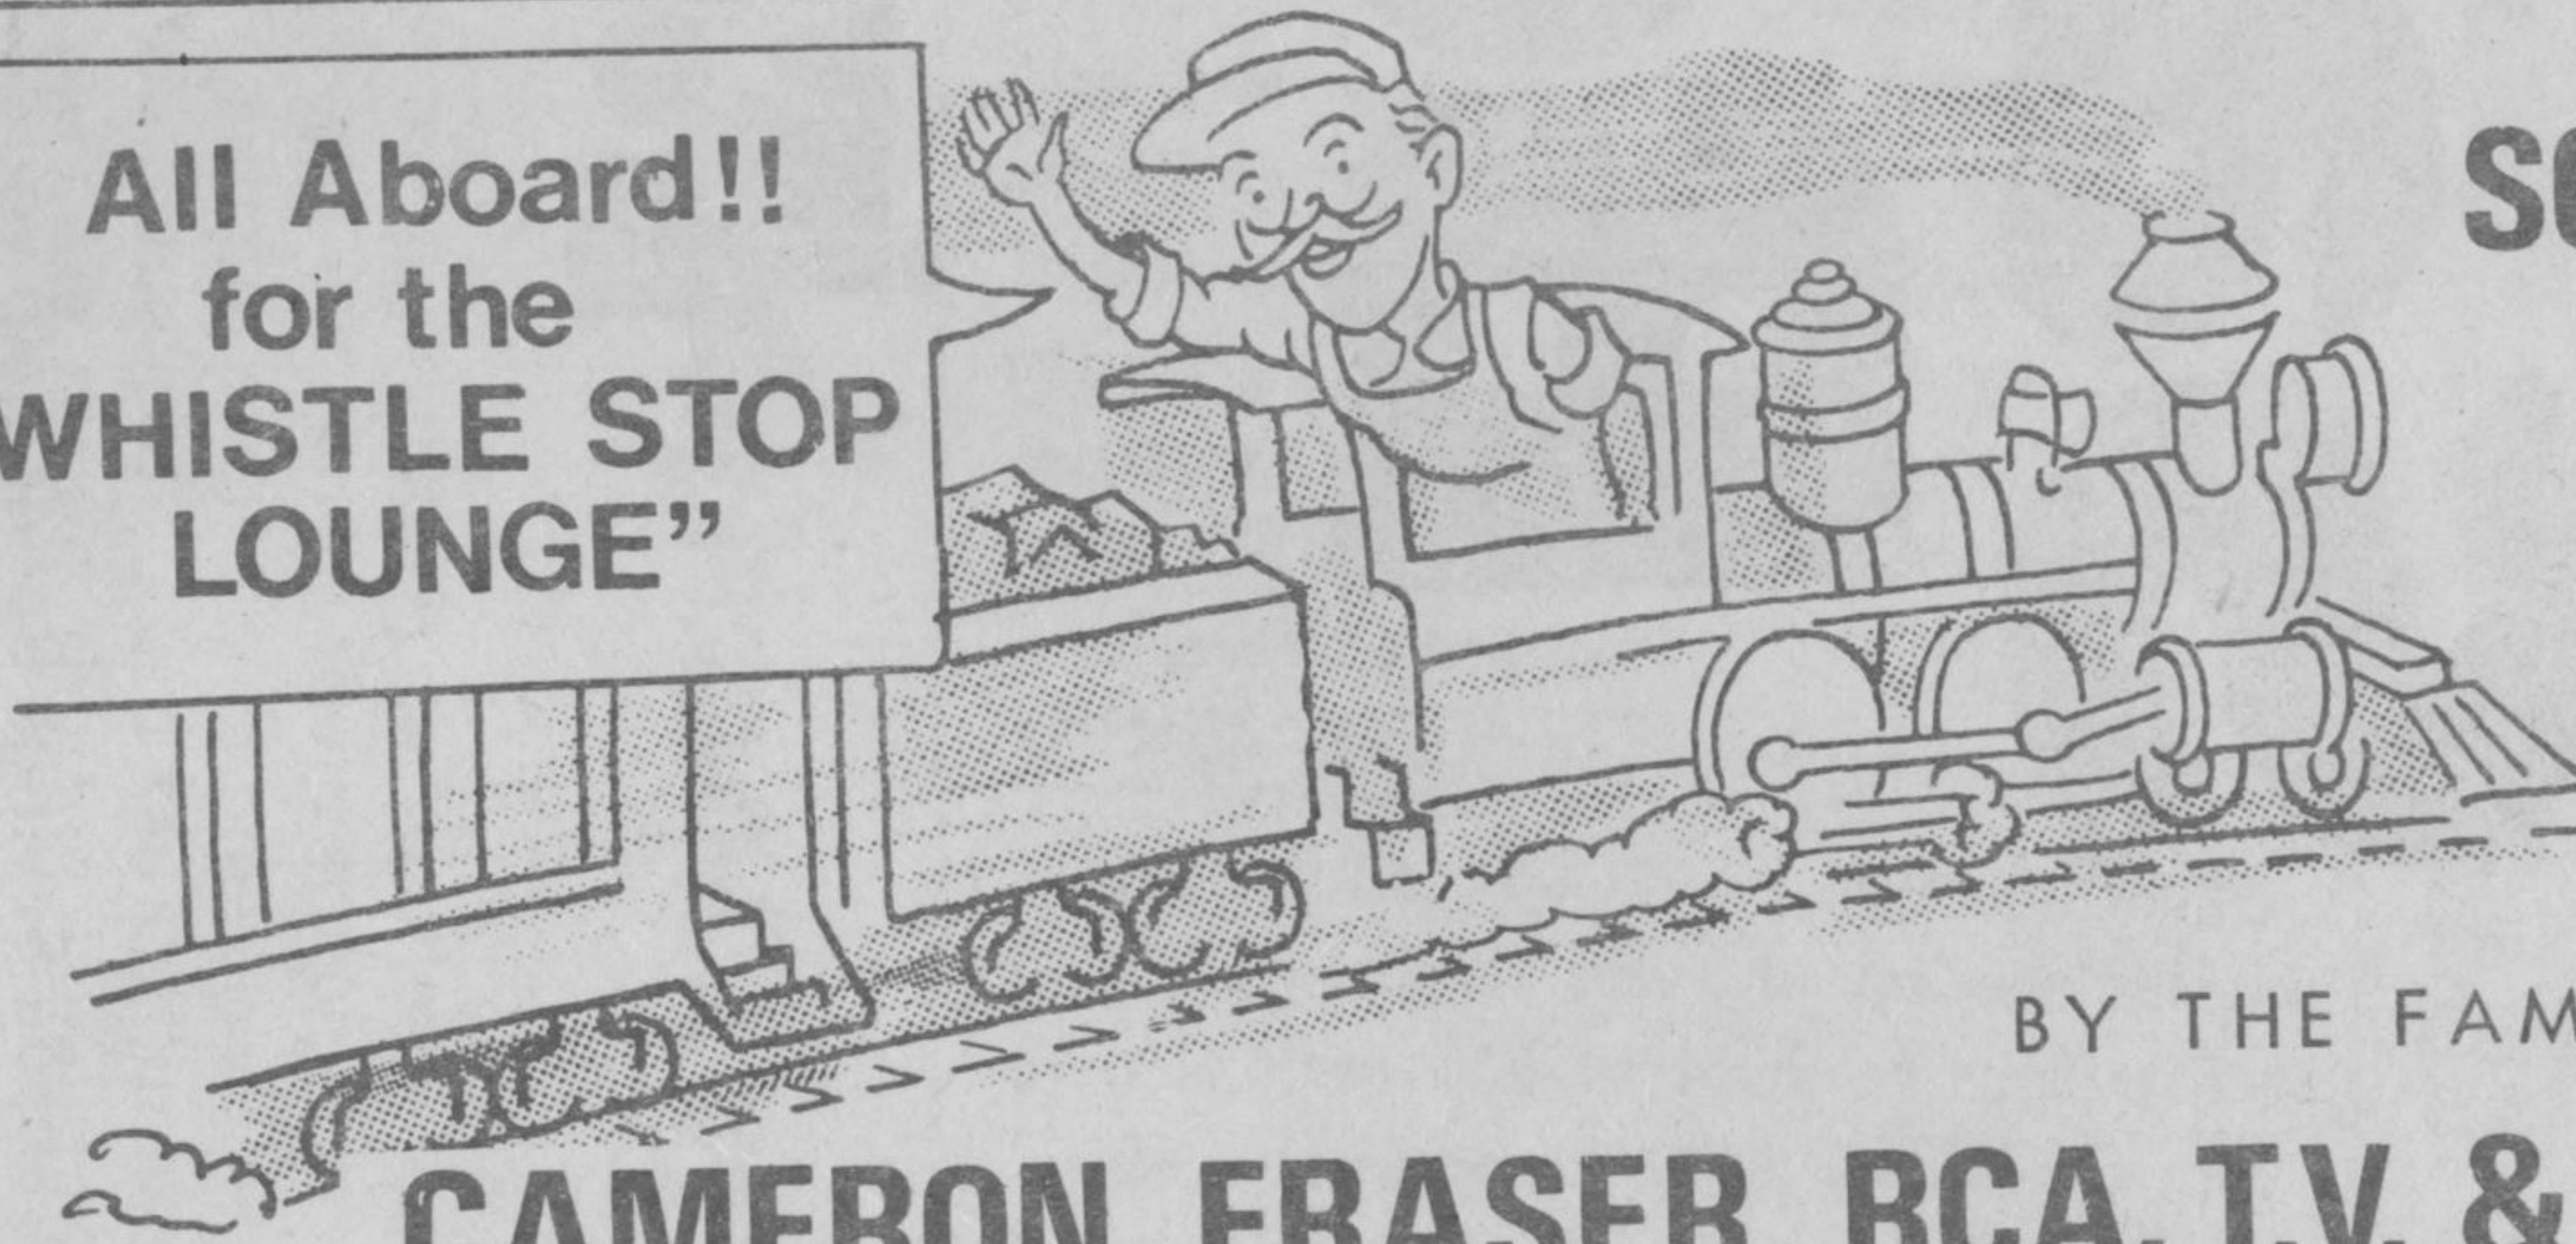

MINOR HOCKEY NOTICE

Minor Hockey Registration will be held at the Schreiber Arena, Saturday evening, October 10th from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

All forms properly signed accompanied by fees are to be turned in at this time.

SCHREIBER MINOR HOCKEY ASSOCIATION.

All Aboard!! for the
"WHISTLE STOP LOUNGE"

IN THE
SCHREIBER HOTEL

TO LISTEN TO
Country & Western songs of the Grand Old Opera
and songs for all

BY THE FAMOUS - -

CAMERON FRASER, RCA, T.V. & Radio Star

APPEARING

Thurs., Fri., Sat. - 9p.m. to 1a.m.

"Step aboard and HAVE A BALL!"

