

The Angel's Harp

The past month and a half has found Holy Angels' School Staff hard at work and looking forward to a year of interesting activities.

An outdoor science workshop held in Quetico was the destination of this quartet. Among the topics covered were surveying, orienteering, plant succession and small animal study. It was both an informative and enjoyable weekend for all involved.

This grade seven group are absorbed in an interesting experiment conducted by Mr. Small.

A group of Kindergarten children are shown using a form of finger painting. This media is at once enjoyable and an aid to self-expression and creativity.

Sister Connie's eager group of grade two's are sharing ideas and experiences with one another.
