

JUNIOR HOCKEY - Cont'd from page 10 especially in the first period. However the teams played hockey in the second and third periods. Terrace Bay seemed to falter halfway through the second period and they took a lot of foolish penalties and were completely out hustled by the Mercks, and wound up on the short end of a 6-4 score.

Scoring for Terrace Bay were Simmer with two and K. Gorman and R. MacKenzie with one each. J. Stout led the Mercks with two goals and singles went to Duzay, Dumas, Paynor and Blanch. In the penalty department Terrace Bay had sixteen minors and two majors while the Mercks took fourteen minors and one major.

Next home game is Thursday, November 12 with the Schreiber North Stars the visitors.

Come out and support our Junior Superiors.

C.W.L. MONTHLY MEETING

On Sunday, November 8th the Catholic Women's League held their regular monthly meeting in St. Martin's Parish Hall. The meeting opened with League Prayers and the Conveners gave their reports.

Mrs. A. Beaulieu reported on the Penny Auction held in October and President, Mrs. Mary Dashkewytch thanked the ladies on their work and the success of it.

It was decided that a Christmas Bake sale will be held in December, convened by Mrs. A. Connors.

Also a Christmas party for League members will take place some time in December, convened by Mrs. L. Fournier.

The President asked if anyone, having good used hockey equipment, would bring it to the Church and it will be sent to the Indian children in the Red Lake Mission.

The meeting ended with the Rosary.

Following the meeting Mrs. N. McGurie (Diocesan Convener for Christian Family Life) gave a workshop in Vocations. Members of Holy Angels Council were invited to attend and Mrs. Margaret Roberts introduced and welcomed the ladies from Schreiber.

Father Cano and Father Gvora were present to help answer questions. The talk was most interesting and stressed that Vocations are fostered in the environment of a good home life with loving parents.

Children should be taught to respect and back the Priests up, as teachers, leaders, shepherd and Distributor of the Sacraments.

Sisters are dedicated to a life of service to God.

Mrs. Marg Roberts thanked Mrs. McGurie and the Schreiber ladies for coming to the meeting.

A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. S. Sadowick and her committee.
