prepared out of which a submission will be made to the Government of what we desire for our region.

After two meetings of this Steering Committee, I called a meeting of our North Shore municipalities on November 7th at Terrace Bay out of which came the following report:

"Reeve Cavanaugh reviewed the proceedings of the first two meetings of the "Steering Committee" which concluded with a request from each municipality to submit their feelings pertaining to the Regional Government concept.

A lengthy discussion ensued and as a result, it was the unanimous opinion that this meeting go on record as being unilaterally opposed to a regional government council in any form, but by the same token, would look favourably on some cost sharing program with unorganized districts or depressed areas within our jurisdiction.

We would also hope that eventually we would have sufficient knowledgeable resource personnel from all Government Departments located in Northwestern Ontario with the necessary authority to process municipal programs without the time consuming process of going to Queen's Park.

It was suggested that copies of the concensus of opinion of this meeting be forwarded to the Nipigon, Red Rock, Dorion area and to the Geraldton, Longlac and Beardmore area, for their evaluation and comment.

And further that the Chairman of the Northwestern Ontario Municipal Development Steering Committee, Mayor Arnold Beebe, be advised of this meeting and that a further brief would be forthcoming."

May I add that we have reason to believe that we have convinced the Government that Regional Government as annunciated - Cont'd next column...
