MEN'S CURLING CLUB NEWS

TURKEY BONSPIEL: - This event got the bonspiel season officially underway. Winners in the main event were Vic Fenton's rink (Vic, Betty Randa, Dick Rattray and Shirley Caron); runners-up were Benny Hayes and his rink (Connie Cvitkovich, Joe Szpak, Julie Rattray). In the Consolation event, the winning rink was skipped by Tony Cvitkovich and consisted of Tony, Dean Clancy, Howie Cooke and Jeannette Gunter. The Consolation runner-up was the rink of Len Crockford, Inga Schmiedchen, Jack Caccamo and George Caron.

PRIZE SYSTEM FOR 1970-71: - With the reorganization of men's curling into the three new divisions, the old system of awarding trophies will no longer be feasible. A new system will have to be devised and this will be done at the executive meeting to be held on December 13th. If you have any suggestions, let one of the executive members know so that all ideas can be considered.

CHRISTMAS PARTY: - The annual Christmas Party will be held in the Lounge on Saturday, December 19th. The bar will be open and live music will be provided. Since this gala event will be handled by the Women's Curling Club, maybe we can look forward to a Women's Lib Santa Claus!!!

JUNIOR HOCKEY - by E. Kettle

Last Tuesday the Terrace Bay Superiors were at home to the Schreiber North Stars and soundly beaten, coming out on the short end of a 9-4 score.

The line of Hiller, Webb and Spadoni worked real well for the North Stars. Webb, Hiller and Gellert scored 2 each for Schreiber with singles going to Spadoni, Fummerton and Bailey. Scoring for the Sups were Sitko, Simmer, Smith and Gresdal

On Saturday, the Junior Sups hosted the Manitowadge Copper Kings and although they lost 6-5, it was a greatly improved club. It looked like the Copper Kings were going to walk away with the game as they built up a 5-0 first period lead. The second period went scoreless. In the third period, the Sups scored at the 28 second mark, Manitowadge then scored at the 4.42 mark to make the score 6-1. However, the Sups put up a gallant effort and scored four in a row, but were unable to get the equalizer.

Copper King goals were scored by Powell, Godin, Jockimski, Mattson, Dumas and Pelletier. Trent Deslauniers led the Sups with 3 goals while Jack Ojavee picked up the other two.

The Sups were to have travelled to Manitowadge on Sunday, but because of inclement weather, the game was postponed and will be played at a later date.

Next home game for the Sups will be Friday, November 27th, when Marathon will be the visitors.
