HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The Terrace Bay Horticultural Society held its 1970 Annual Meeting recently with the various committee chairmen reporting on an active year. A total of 240 people from Terrace Bay and Schreiber purchased memberships during the year.

Hyacinthe Landry, annual show chairman, reported on one of the best Flower and Vegetable Shows in several years, with 568 individual entries. The Junior Gardeners program, under the guidance of Albert Cadieux Sr., had a most successful year with many excellent exhibits at the annual show. As an added incentive to the young gardeners, Junior Gardeners Crests were awarded to all children who cared for their gardens throughout the summer and exhibited produce from them in the show this year. It was suggested that some changes should be made in the regulations governing the Horticultural Society's
