

Annual Meeting - cont'd from page 13

Garden Plots, as only about six were in use during the past summer. Mr. Steen reported on an active year as chairman for Soils and Fertilizer, with approximately $850. in fertilizers, etc. ordered for resale to members. Public planting done under the leadership of Terry Dorland this year, consisted of one flower bed in the business section of town and one in the Centennial park. A suggestion from the floor that additional projects be considered in the coming year, and that Horticultural Society projects should be supplied with Horticultural Society markers, will be considered in the spring.

Mr. Steen commended the directors for their diligent work throughout the year, which helped to make the Terrace Bay Society one of the best in Ontario. He remarked on the fine quality of this years show exhibits, and the excellent work done with our children. A special thank you went to Henry Hermes and to Eva Connors and her committee for planning the Harvest Social, again enjoyed by every-one.

The following slate of officers was presented by the nominating committee and was unanimously accepted. President - John Steen, 1st vice-pres.

Hyacinthe Landry, 2nd vice-pres. - George Buhrmann, Directors for a two year term - Terry Dorland, Ted Brown, Hilda Relph, Rena McAdam, Eva Connors Directors for a one year term - Henry Hermes, George Birch, Shirley Opas, Rita Corrigan, and Albert Cadieux.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of Ontario Horticultural Association sponsored "Trillium" awards to Mr. and Mrs. Art Connors and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boyd, Sr. of Terrace Bay; and to Mrs. Clara Caccamo and Mrs. J. Kuczma of Schreiber. These awards are presented for well landscaped front properties, and judging was carried out during the summer months by a panel of judges consisting of Reeve E. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Isabel Marsh and Reeve Fred Harness of Schreiber. In making the presentations Reeve Cavanaugh remarked that in touring the two towns it had been a revelation to find so many beautifully kept home grounds, and he commended the Society for recognizing the best of these.

At the close of the evening a sound film on "Trees and their Care" was enjoyed by those present, Following a draw for door prizes, coffee was served by Eva Connors and her Committee.
