

...of Mr. Keith Penner.....

attentive as they listen to explanations of techniques used to create prized masterpieces.

ANGELS' HARP:

To the left in this picture is Mrs. Karns, Holy Angels' School secretary. Always cheerful and ready to help, she is shown here consulting with Sister Marvel (principal) and Mr. Speziale (vice-principal).

Mrs. Tremblay, an adept organizer tends the school library. She is shown here carrying out one of the many tasks associated with the job of librarian.

1st Photo, Next column: Madame Chicoine carries on a conversation in Francais with the grade seven class. She is Holy Angels' French teacher and is responsible for an excellent French program from Kindergarten to Grade 8.

2nd Photo, Next column: Miss Dick, grade five teacher is shown here supervising an experiment related to various moulds.

3rd Photo, Next column: Evaluation of an art lesson finds Mrs. Dampier and her grade four class

ST. AMAND - MORRIS VOWS EXCHANGED: continued from page 16
gloves and patent shoes.

They will make their home on Ontario street in Schreiber. Guests from out of town attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Daniel St. Amand, Mr. and Mrs. Pat St. Amand, Bill St. Amand, Genevieve, Sandra, Susan, Brenda, Mary and Denise St. Amand, Miss Sharon Larmard, all of Victoria Harbor Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beilhartz, of Sudbury; Miss Judy Roblee and Graham Oxby of Thunder Bay, and James Latour, of Midland.