L.A. HELD OLD FASHIONED CHRISTMAS PARTY

When the Ladies Auxiliary met on Monday evening in the Community Church Hall, a good number turned out to join in the festivities of an Old Fashioned Christmas Party.

Receiving at the door, wearing long dresses of a by-gone era, were Mrs. Lil Harris and Mrs. Helen Brooks. They collected the Christmas gifts and favourite recipes for the exchange to take place later.

Mrs. Clara Gould, also gowned in a long dress of yester-year, welcomed the ladies and handed out carol sheets.

Mrs. Marilyn Chisholm presided for the business part of the evening. Minutes and correspondence were read and the treasurer's report given. Mrs. Chisholm thanked all the ladies who had made the Christmas Bazaar so very successful and stated that all the Korean dolls, stamps and Christmas cards were sold.

The treasurer was instructed to send a cheque for $55. for the aid of a student in Trinidad.

The president was happy to announce that a larger house, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. Pirie of Hydro, had been designated by Kimberly-Clark to be the Manse for the new minister who will be arriving in January.

It was announced that the Community Church Sunday School Pageant will take place in the Church on Sunday, December 20th, at 11:00 A.M. to be followed by a Pot Luck Luncheon in the basement. Everyone is welcome.

World Day of Prayer will be held on March 5th, 1971.

Mrs. Lil Harris requested that ladies continue to save Canada Packer labels.

Mrs. Chisholm thanked the ladies who provided lunch for the congregation after Mr. Peter McKague of Sault Ste. Marie, preached for a call last Sunday.

Mrs. Gertrude Soughton, who was in charge of the program, introduced the three ladies who por-
