Special Education - cont'd from page 12 ....

area may come to browse, read, study, or just talk about special education.

The basement of the Averill home has been a hive of activity since September as a committee has set to work remodelling the area, ordering supplies and display materials and organizing the centre for use.

Drop in and see where education is going!

PRESSURE APPLIED FOR LATE EVENING T.V.

Last week, Keith Penner, M.P., and a delegation from Geraldton and Longlac met with the Canadian Radio Television Commission and CBC officials to present their case for an extension of TV viewing hours in the area served by the transmitter located at Geraldton.

The conclusion of the meeting was that there were a number of ways in which this service could be provided at fairly reasonable cost.

CRTC and CBC gave a verbal commitment to look at the possibilities with a view of giving viewers a late movie as soon as possible.
