LEGION CHRISTMAS PARTY

The starry-eyed wonder in the eyes of the one hundred children greeting Santa Claus at the Schreiber Canadian Legion Christmas tree party was reflected in the wistful glances of the parents, thinking back to earlier years.

Each child, eight and under received a gift, with an orange and chocolate bar and were also served sandwiches and pop.

With Frank McKenna playing the important role of the event the program went smoothly but for one small incident: when under the strain of a particular jolly Ho Ho, accompanied by wide-flung arms, Santa's belt buckle gave way! To the unconstrained delight of young and old alike.

Working at the event were Mesdames Iris Lidkea, Lillian MacDonald, Ruth Hiller, Joan Costall, Myrtle Zaporzan, Chris Morris, Earline Johnson, Georgina Davis and Myra Holmes.
