warm smile and sunny nature, did much for the Ecumenical movement in Terrace Bay, where he taught, as he believed, that all men are brothers, in the sight of God.

Following in the footsteps of his predecessor, Dean E.A. Gallagher, with whom he was associated before coming to Terrace Bay, he has brought St. Martin's and the Community Church closer together.

Terrace Bay is a better place for having known him, and we all hope he finds fulfillment in his chosen field.

capturing most of the highlights of North American Wildlife, as never seen before.

Al Oeming .. director of the Alberta Game Farm.. and who was one of the several naturalists aiding Mr. Sielmann in the production in the field .. will personally narrate the film. Al Oeming hails "Wild Splendor" as a truly exciting epic .. and will describe in colorful detail for you .. the actions and excitement recorded by the world's foremost nature film photographer and producer .. Heinz Sielmann.

The film took over four years to produce, and was edited entirely by Heinz Sielmann in Munich, Germany. Parts of it have been seen on the BBC Television programs and on the North German Television Transmissions. In fact, select sequences from the picture were seen on the National Geographic Documentary on Sielmann's life.

For those of us who are concerned about our natural heritage, this film is a must. It represents the pinnacle of the great artist Sielman's genius. It is sound family entertainment and entirely educational for all.

Don't miss Heinz Sielmann's "Wild Splendor" presented in person by Al Oeming, Director of the Alberta Game Farm, to be shown Wednesday, January 28th at the Terrace Bay High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. Tickets on sale at the door. Proceeds are used for Conservation Practises.
