

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

We had the pleasure last week, to visit the Terrace Bay High School during their open house.

The facilities of the school, especially the shops, impressed us very much. The friendliness and cheerfulness of the pupils and teachers made the tour most interesting.

We would like to thank the pupils and teachers for having this open house and allowing us to visit their beautiful, well kept school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Berndtsson.

ANNOUNCEMENT

who had donated towards it. Mrs. Lundberg also gave a report on the sale of Praying Hands and Peace Pins and stated that through the good salesmanship of Mrs. Pam Jones and Diane, almost all the pins have been sold. A request was made to order 25 more Praying Hand pins. Profit from the sale of these pins will be turned over to the Memorial Organ Fund.

Mrs. Wise reminded the ladies of the forth coming Fashion Show and Luncheon to be held on April 17th, in the Church hall. Plans are well underway for this venture.

Mrs. Lundberg, program convenor, was asked to introduce the guest speaker, Mr. Bob Cressman, Supervising Principal for Elementary Schools in this District.

Mr. Cressman, in an informal and informative talk on "Modern Trends in Education", was a most charming guest speaker. He asked questions and opinions of the members and explained trends towards the Open Concept Schools, letting children advance at their own speed, and discipline in the class room, among other topics. His talk was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present.
