MEETING HELD AT PINWOOD COURT

The May meeting of the District Home for the Aged Board was held at Pinewood Court.

Municipal representatives from Paipoonge, Oliver, Conmee, Gillies, O'Connor, Red Rock, Nipigon, Dorion attended the meeting which was held immediately following the dinner hosted by Mrs. Erna Sorensen and her staff at Pinewood Court. In the short business session authorization was given by the Board to purchase an ice cube machine, a small greenhouse and a floor polisher.

The Board Chairman, Mr. Jim Symington, outlined to those present the urgent need for more beds and the proposal being considered was the Barker Home at Geraldton which would house 20 ambulatory residents and adding on to Pinewood Court approximately 35 beds for Bed Care residents.

The Administrator, Mr. Vibert, commented on his visit to Geraldton where he interviewed a number of applicants that had filed applications to enter a Home in the Geraldton area. These were people that needed housing and the type of resident that would make use of the Barker Home. He finished his comments by stating that if the Barker Home was acquired there would be a - Continued on page 12 .....
