

SCHREIBERHOCKEY DINNER

Jim Armstrong, president of the minor hockey league, was M.C. at their banquet held in the Legion and attended by eighty-six.

Others at the head table were Bill Stefurak, secretary-treasurer; Joe Caccamo, vice-president; the coaches - Cos Filane, Ted Wilson, Mike Smilsky, Pat Conley and Steve Cheryl; Borden Ross, referee; with John St. Jean, rink manager.

The boys vociferously applauded all those who had made their year so successful.

Awards were presented as follows: - Peewee house league - Most Valuable player - Eric Glad (Texaco); Gordon Ross (Filane-Caccamo); Bruce Martin (Huskies); Most improved - Doug Ross (Texaco); Fred Figliomeni (Caccamo-Filane); Tom Ray (Huskies).

Major Peewee - Most valuable player - Bobby Smilsky; Most improved - Pat Mulligan. Bantam - Most valuable player - Mike Souliere; Most improved Terry Jartus. Midgets - Most valuable player - Ricky Spadoni; Most improved - Ronnie Courtemanche.

The peewee house league trophy was presented by Cos Filane to Gordon Ross.

The Marathon Peewee tournament was won by Schreiber Knights and the Nicol trophy presented by Ted Wilson to Peter Armstrong.

The Soughton North Shore trophy, also won by Schreiber Knights was presented to Mike Mulligan by Ted Wilson.

A special trophy - Sportman of the Year, minor hockey, was presented to Harvey Carmichael for arranging the Skate-a-thon last November which raised $2100.00 for minor hockey support.

The Chapples trophy for the most gentlemanly player was awarded to Jimmy Wilson on the Texaco team.

A gift was presented to Mike Smilsky for his years with the league and untiring and varied support.

Mr. Armstrong thanked all the coaches, patrons of the teams, and others whose work was a necessity in carrying on the league but he made a plea for more fathers to become involved.

He also paid tribute to the mothers who each year cook and serve the banquet. The turkeys and buns are provided by the league but cooked by the ladies who also provide the other food required. Serving this year were Mesdames F. McKenna, K. Nesbitt, J. Winters, I. Martin, W. Dukes, J. Armstrong and

J. Bryson.

Photo below - by I. McCuaig - Peter Armstrong, Mike Mulligan, Steven Ross, Gordon Ross.

L.A. CELEBRATE 24TH ANNIVERSARY

The ladies auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 109, celebrated its 24th anniversary with a dinner well attended.

Barbara McLaughlin, vice-president of the Legion convened the dinner and was assisted in serving by Harry Smith, Len Hiller, Gerry Nicol, Walter Duke, Scotty Smart and Jack Winters.

The birthday cake was made and donated by Mrs. Cecile Bedard.

Pat Moore, treasurer, said Grace and Jean Crook Vice-president, gave the Toast to the Queen. Georgina Davis, president, was M.C., welcoming Mrs. Evelyn Daniel, president, Mrs. Edna Matheson treasurer and Mrs. Florence Ross, warden officers of the Marathon auxiliary and twelve members of the Terrace Bay auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Dot Coupal, president.

Mrs. Daniels brought good wishes from Marathon auxiliary and Mrs. Coupal, congratulations from Terrace Bay, with a gift to mark their good wishes.

The lively conversation and good-natured joking at each other's expense reached its peak when Jeanette Gunter and Jean Megraw, the self-proclaimed physical fitness experts of the Terrace Bay auxiliary were dared to go jogging after the meal. They had the last laugh, however, for suspecting such a challenge, they had brought their track togs and were off and away.

Music for dancing was supplied by George Churney, Bill Megraw and Len Pineault of Terrace Bay.

The evening draws - cont'd page 16