

Musical Sounds filled the ears of this group of children as Mr. Wooster from the Department of Education demonstrated the various sounds of the trombone. Assisting Mr. Wooster was Inga Haglund Special Education Consultant.

Sister Marvel is also pictured trying out her musical abilities.

A group of grade seven students prepare an experiment on "Distance". The main apparatus used was the pendulum, a simple tool and easily assembled by the students themselves.- 1st pic next column.....

Mr. and Mrs. D'Arcy McGuire left on Tuesday for Kingston to attend Queen's University convocation when their daughter Elizabeth (Betty) will receive her B.A. En route Mr. and Mrs. McGuire will visit in St. Joseph's Island and in Pembroke with Mr. McGuire's parents.

SCHREIBER DETACHMENT WEEKLY REPORT

Three liquor investigations were conducted during the past week with two liquor seizures being made and appropriate charges laid. The third investigation in regard to unlawfully supplying liquor is still under investigation.

Continued investigation into the number of break and enters that occurred during the month of March 1971 led to a charge of Break, Enter & Theft being laid against a Schreiber resident.

On May 21, 1971 thanks to the assistance of members of the Holy Angels School staff three juveniles were apprehended shortly after breaking into the school. All stolen property was recovered and the three responsible subjects will be appearing in court.

On the traffic scene one minor collision occurred at the junction of Ontario Street and Highway #17 on May 17, 1971. The drivers involved were Joseph Speziale and Thomas Yates both of Schreiber.

A charge of improper right turn was laid in this connection.

Boyd Drake and his fiance Cathie Lang of Thunder Bay were here to help mark the 25th anniversary of Boyd's parents Mr. and Mrs. Gary Drake on Tuesday, May 25th. The family enjoyed a dinner in the Hotel Terrace and during the evening friends called at their home with good wishes.