

KENNEDY-NICKOLUK VOWS EXCHANGED IN TERRACE BAY

St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church, Terrace Bay, was the scene of the May 22nd wedding of Loreen Susan Nickoluk and Jerald Joseph Kennedy, both of Toronto.

Giant white mums adorned the altar and satin bows with Lily of the Valley decorated the pews.

Father A. Greengrass officiated at the double ring ceremony and organist was Mrs. Marg Simmer with Miss Janie Persson as soloist.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Nickoluk and the bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kennedy, all of Terrace Bay.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Angel white hammered satin, featuring a straight skirt with a fitted bodice, a high Victorian collar and full shirtwaist sleeves. Bands of imported Swiss embroidered lace enhanced the bodice and waist and edged the collar and sleeves. A detachable chapel length train, edged in lace, flowed from the waist to compliment the gown. Her full length bouffant veil of tulle illusion was caught to a matching pill box headpiece. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of orange ice roses with accents of baby breath and yellow streamers.

The maid of Honour was Miss Linda Woodruff. Bridesmaids were Miss Lynda Kennedy and Miss Nancy Lapenskie. The Junior bridesmaid was Miss Carol Kennedy and the flower girl was Dorothy Kennedy.

The Senior attendants wore mint green pant suits. The tunic tops had low scoop necklines and long angel sleeves. They wore large, matching green floppy brim hats and velvet chokers with charms, a gift from the bride, complimented the outfits. The Junior attendants were in mint green pant suits with high rounded neckline, long wide sleeves and green velvet ribbons in their hair. They wore crosses with a cultured pearl, also a gift from the bride. The groom's best man, Joseph Kennedy, the ring bearer, was dressed in all white. The best man was Donald Kennedy and the ushers were Stephen Nickoluk, brother of the bride and Kenneth, James and Richard Kennedy, all brothers of the groom.

At a reception in the Moose Hall, Father Greengrass said grace and the toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle, who is also her godfather, Walter Charyna.

The dining room hostess was Mrs. Hugh Hamilton. A white embroidered linen cloth covered the table on which was centered, on yellow tulle, the three tiered wedding cake. Ivory tapers in tall crystal holders flanked the cake which was cut by Mrs. Roy White of Marathon, Ont. Twin cousins of the groom, Laurel and Louise MacDonald, wearing long peasant dresses, assisted the bride and groom in serving the cake. Miss Heather Charyna, cousin of the bride circulated the guest book.

Don Kennedy was Master of Ceremonies for the evening and read many congratulatory telegrams from relatives and friends.

The bride's mother received wearing a champagne ivory fortrel dress with a matching rachel knit sleeveless coat. She wore a taupe hat, gloves and shoes and a corsage of orange ice roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink fortrel dress with matching scalloped lace coat and pink shoes. Her hat and gloves were navy and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

For her going away outfit the bride changed to a three piece pant suit ensemble in off white and pink with a striped vest. She wore white shoes and carried a white crushed leather handbag. A hot pink carnation corsage completed her ensemble.

The newlyweds will reside at 2 Trophy Drive, Toronto 375, Ontario.

Out of town guests included Mrs. J. Charyna, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. O. Augustson, godmother of the bride; Mr. Walter Charyna and daughters Ivy and Heather; Mrs. B. Koski; Mrs. E.B. McLaughlin; Mr. R. Hunt; Mrs. E. Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. B. Cavanaugh; Mr. and Mrs. R. Sloan; Mr. and Mrs. J. Sterling and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. MacDonald and family; Mr. and Mrs. R. Kukko and family; Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and family all of Thunder Bay; Mr. and Mrs. D. Whalen and family, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. B. Peskett; Mr. and Mrs. W. Rowan, Oakville; Mr. Bryan McInnes, Toronto; Miss Cynthia Harrison, Central Patricia; Mr. and Mrs. G. Tamblin; Mr. and Mrs. Roy White and family, Marathon; Miss Estelle Chicoine and Warren Morrill; Mr. and Mrs. B. Stefurak; Mr. and Mrs. R. Turner; Mr. and Mrs. J. Figliomeni; Mrs. and Mrs. J. Wiznuk; Mr. and Mrs. A. Krystia; Mrs. Albert Gauthier and Mr. Aurel Gauthier all of Schreiber.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by her fellow staff members at the home of Mrs. Linda Sallows in Toronto. In Terrace Bay, Lori was the guest of honour at a shower held in St. Martin's Church Hall with hostesses Misses Woodruff, Lapenskie and Mesdames Mitchell, Teskey, Young and Thomas.

A rehearsal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Kennedy.
