VOWS EXCHANGED IN HOLY ANGELS CHURCH

Summer flowers adorned Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber on May 8th, 1971, for the wedding of Anna Maria Figliomeni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Filippo Figliomeni and Mr. Girolamo Figliomeni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Girolamo Figliomeni, all of Schreiber.

Father O'Flaherty officiated and organist was Miss Brenda Lalonde, accompanied by soloist, Giovanni Cebrario.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of lace and chiffon, lace fused for the fitted bodice with ring collar Empire waistline and long sleeves, chiffon for the softly-full skirt. Her cathedral veil was bordered with lace and held by a cluster of white satin flowers and leaves. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and stephanotis, tied with long mauve ribbon streamers.

The bride's four attendants were Maria Agostino, as maid of honor, Maria Veneziano, Roseann Speciale, bridesmaids and Marlene Speciale as flower girl. They wore identical frocks with ruffled white organza bodices, Empire waistline, topped with flower-embroidered boleros and full mauve chiffon skirts. They carried yellow carnations.

Domenic Costa was the ring bearer. Jim Duggan was best man and ushers were Joey Agostino and Jim Figliomeni.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given in the Messe Hall, Terrace Bay.

In the afternoon a reception was held with the bride's mother receiving in a dress and coat ensemble in green and white fortrel with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose a blue and beige gown of fortrel with white accessories and corsage of yellow carnations.

Following a dinner, the wedding dance was enjoyed. George Walsh was M.C. at the dinner; Albert Costa gave the toast to the bride and Jim Duggan the toast to the bridesmaids.

Especially appreciated was a poem written for the occasion and read by the poet, Francesco Costa, who came from Italy for the wedding.

The bride and groom, for their wedding trip, drove to Las Vegas and California, the bride donning a bonded beige and crown cape suit.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was entertained at a shower arranged in Thunder Bay by Miss Maria Agostino and at a community shower in Schreiber.

The groom was feted at a stag held in the Schreiber curling rink, hosted by his best man and ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Figliomeni are making their home in Schreiber.

Among those from out of town attending the wedding were: Francesco Costa and Francesco Gentile of Italy; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reale, Antonio Dettors, - Continued next column .....
