

Photo below - Moose Installation - Steffie Dorman, Clara Gould, Minnie Woodruff, Alice Wercynski and Lorraine Prill.

Ann Didura, Lorraine Desaulniers and Jackie Calder

K-C GRADUATES ARE DINNER GUESTS

left to right - B. McBride, T. Wilson, N. Smith, R. Hopper, J. St. Louis and I. Macadam.

Six members of the trades training program were honoured by Kimberly-Clark Pulp and Paper Company Ltd. at the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel on June 4th, 1971, with a social hour, dinner and presentation of certificates.

Graduates are: Bruce McBride and Bob Hopper, Pipefitters; T. Wilson and Neil Smith, Electricians; J. St. Louis, Millwright; Ian Macadam, Instrument Mechanic.

Infrared scanners in aircraft can detect heat from campfires on the ground.

AGUASABON GOLF CLUB NEWS

Results of the Senior Men's Twilight held June 23rd - "A" Division - 1st Gross - Grant Solly - 36; 2nd Net - Al Pattison - 35. "B" Division - 1st Low Net - C. Buck - 35; 2nd Low Net - J. Dupas - 36.

Ray Hansen proved to be the best golfer in the board of directors by winning their tournament Sunday, June 27th, Thor Olsen was again the bridesmaid this year.

Two have already qualified for the O'Sherry Birdie Hole (No. 4) Ed Nicol and Ken Hanley.

There is a reward posted in the club house for anyone capturing the raven who stole a K2 tetelist ball from No. 8 green.

Congratulations to Ken Hanley who won the Wawa Junior open this past weekend. Ken shot a 158 for the 36 holes.

Mark Dashkewytch placed 4th in the championships flight. Dave Adamo and Pat Heenan both did well.

The club, I am sure, feel justly proud of the showing our boys made.

TENDERS

Tenders will be accepted for scraping and painting exterior painted surfaces of building. Kindly contact Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Terrace Bay, for further particulars and submitting estimate.