SCHREIBER DETACHMENT O.P.P. PRESS RELEASE
 Three liquor investigations were conducted during the past week with liquor being seized in each instance. Three subjects have been charged under the provisions of the Liquor Control Act.

On July 2, 1971 P.C. Wills investigated two complaints of vandalism in the Columbia, Brunswick Street areas. During the night two gardens were literally destroyed. Vegetables were pulled from the ground and strewn around the yards. It makes a person wonder at the mental stability of a person(s) pulling such a senseless, destructive act.

On July 3, 1971 P.C. Wills also investigated a report of a parked vehicle near Lakehead Freightways being forcibly entered. Stolen from this autoware a stereo tape player, 26 assorted tapes, and several other tools. Investigation is continuing into the above occurrences.

On the traffic scene three motor vehicle collisions were reported and all were investigated by P.C. Jones (con. pg. II)
