

POT LUCK SUPPER - Cont'd from page 3 ...

A letter of appreciation was to be sent to Recreation Director Jerry Dupas and his summer staff for the excellent program put on this past summer for all the children of Terrace Bay.

Mrs. Wise stated that plans are well underway for the Christmas Bazaar to be held in November.

A nominations committee will be chosen in October. The Worship period was taken by Mrs. Helen Brooks and Clara Gould played the piano for the hymn "Happy the Home". Mrs. Brooks read "Mother's Love" and Prayers for children.

Mrs. Soughton introduced the program based on the letters HOME - members took part in a discussion on what part the Church plays in the Home.

The evening ended with the Mizpah Benediction.

Marg Duriez would appreciate donations of good used clothing or household items for her Nearly New Table at the Christmas Bazaar. Anyone having articles to be picked up, may call Marg after 6 P.M.

WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED AT ST. MARTIN'S

St. Martin's of Tours was the setting for the exchange of wedding vows between Claire Rita Belliveau and Francis William Roen on August 28th, at 4 P.M., with Father A. Greengrass officiating at the double ring ceremony. Altar boys were Jack Cruickshank and John Vienneau.

Claire is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Belliveau, Terrace Bay, and Francis is the son of Mrs. Christine Roen and the late Francis Roen of Schreiber.

Miss Lorraine Belliveau, sister of the bride, was the soloist, with Cathy Melnyk at the organ. Cathy Belliveau read the Epistle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of Nylon dotted swiss, with Empire waistline, trimmed with yellow ribbon and lace at the waist. Her headdress was a four tiered shoulder length veil. She carried a Cascade bouquet of yellow roses and white Shasta daisies.

The Matron of Honour was Mrs. Gail Koenig, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids were Valarie Boyd and Geraldine Belliveau, sister of the bride.

They all wore similar formal gowns of dotted swiss, trimmed with white lace, in shades of mint green, light blue and pink. They wore matching picture hats and carried giant white mums.

Dan Miller was Best Man and Michael Roen, brother of the groom, - Cont'd next column and Paul Belliveau, brother of the bride, were ushers. The ring bearer was Arthur Roen, brother of the groom. Wendy Duffield, niece of the groom, was flower girl, wearing a yellow frock of dotted swiss, trimmed with white lace, and a crown of yellow and white flowers.

A dinner was held at the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel for the family, and close friends. Terry Koenig proposed the toast to the Bride.

Paul Rochon was Master of Ceremonies.

A reception was held in the Moose Hall, where the Bride's mother received in a light beige Crimp-lene, with silver fleck dress with a corsage of yellow roses. The Groom's mother chose a Tan suit with a corsage of tinted mauve carnations.

The Bride's sister, Cathy Belliveau, circulated the guest book.

For thier wedding trip around the Lake, the bride wore a short peasant dress in double knit Acetate jersey, with a corsage of white carnations.

They will make their home at 182 Hudson Drive, Terrace Bay.

Out of town guests included, Gail and Terry Koenig, Edie and Ed Belliveau, Nachawic, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. Rick Maki, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sommers, Maureen Ostaff, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Durrante, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Duffield, Linda Smith, Anne Boon, Rick Caver, all of Thunder Bay; Gail Babrowich, Derek Lasocha, Nipigon; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Kelly, Timmins; Rick White, Jim Carman, Marathon.
