UNICEF Canvass - cont'd from page 1 .....

Your contributions will help UNICEF to help governments in these countries to develop and continue programs against disease, against hunger and malnutrition, against ignorance, against the breakdown of family life, and against disaster.

When a 'trick-or-treater' comes to your door with his orange and black UNICEF collection box on Halloween, please contribute whatever you can in the knowledge that you'll be investing in the future of children around the world.

Three St. Martin's School pupils eager to go out for "trick-or-treats" for UNICEF this Halloween. Left to right - Linda Paukstys, John Bruno and Mindy Gorman.

While visiting in Scotland, the Canadian curlers will be billeted in private homes in Glasgow and Aviemore, and at other times in hotels, courtesy of the Scottish Ladies Curling Club Association.

Places where curling will take place are Glasgow Dundee, Kiraldy, Perth, Aviemore, Inverness, Pebbles, Edinburgh, Hamilton, Kelso, Lockerbie, Ayr and Stranraer.

Between November 4th and November 29th, the ladies will play 29 games. But it won't be all work, as the Scottish Ladies Curling Association has planned tours, receptions, teas, cocktail hours and dinners, to make the whole tour an unforgettable experience.

Peggy will carry mementoes of the local district to the host curlers, including Club pins, amethyst, brochures from Thunder Bay and Terrace Bay, describing the area, the industries and the recreational facilities, as well as coins commemorating the amalgamation of the two Lakehead cities. Also she will take guest pen sets, made of local stones by Stu Reid, of Terrace Bay and donated by the local Township Council.

Our congratulations go to Peggy, as she represents Terrace Bay, Ontario and Canada, and to all the
