hesitate to use the gavel if the prisoners got too rowdy in their defence.

Constable Lil Harris, wearing a slightly large hat and coat borrowed from Police Chief Jim Doyle, read the charges. After a lot of laughter, and some serious thought, the Foreman of the Jury, Vera Kennedy, brought in a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoners were discharged.

Mrs. Margaret McKague played for a sing song around the piano, while lunch was prepared by Sharon Teskey, Barb Wise and Elaine Mannisto.

MEETING WELL ATTENDED

A meeting of those who have been affected by earwig infestation, and other interested citizens was well attended on Friday night, when Mike Reid, of Schreiber, Public Health Inspector, was on hand to listen to the complaints and to try to find a solution for this problem. Mr. Reid has promised to contact the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Health, and to bring his findings as soon as possible, to the people of Terrace Bay.

MEN'S CURLING CLUB NEWS

Mini-Bonspiel: the 1971-72 curling season got off to an auspicious start last Saturday with the opening Mini-Bonspiel. Twenty-two rinks were entered and competed for prizes in three events. The evening was rounded off in fine style with a social, including dancing to the music of the Midnight Hour. The winners and runners-up in each event were as follows.

Men's League - The selection of rinks for the Men's League will be done this week and regular play will begin on Wednesday, November 10th. Mixed Curling - The Executive has decided that all Mixed Curling will be held on Friday evenings, as in previous years. The first game will be played on Friday, November 19. There is still room for more entries. You may enter as a full rink or as a couple. Individual entries are continued page 5 ...
