EASTERN STAR HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

A short business meeting of Silver Birch Chapter, O.E.S., Terrace Bay, presided over by Worthy Patron Albert Farrow, preceded a lively and well attended Christmas Party.

Minutes of the last meeting and special meeting held on Nov. 29th were read. The latter meeting was held to confer degrees of the order on a new member.

Communications were read, including greetings from Grand Lodge, and acknowledgments of donations sent by the Chapter to various organizations.

The Charter was draped in memory of Brother Rev. George Crawley, who died recently in his Edmonton home.

Christmas party convener Sandra Quinton introduced the method of gift exchange which proved to be an enjoyable event. Harry Coe was in charge of the wine and cheese table, and while not consistently accurate with his epecrean advice, performed his duties very creditably.

A sing song of Christmas music with Mrs. A. Bryson at the piano, provided
