Christine Bottomley was home from London with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bottomley, with her brother Norman, of Nipigon.

With Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kirkpatrick over the holidays were Dr. Brock Kirkpatrick, and his wife and sons, Kent and Stephen of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Kirkpatrick of Thunder Bay.

Earl (Bang) McCouan of Windsor was here to visit his mother and others in the family.

The snow machine raffled by the Curling Club was won by Antonio Ciuro of Manitowadge.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Winters have to spend the winter in St. Petersburg, Florida. Prior to their leaving a family party and dinner was held in their honor, with 34 attending and still 13 others sending regrets. Santa arrived to present presents especially to 'Vic and Bob' but to others as well. By happy chance the Winters' motel apartment will be next to that of a friend with whom he railoaded in Schreiber in 1912. When urged to make a farewell speech, Bob warned his family that this was the first of a number of trips he and their mother have planned: for instance, he has never seen the Panama Canal which he helped to build!

Mrs. B. Sisson of Orillia will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morrill - her daughter Marjory, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sisson.

Mrs. Lilyan Christie spent Christmas in Deep River with her family-- Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christie, Lauri and John Douglas Christie, of Deep River, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dorken (Judy Christie), and daughters Cindy and Rhonda.

Fred Storz of Toronto spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Davis.

Miss Blanche Smith of Ottawa spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gillert and family and Mr. Herb Gillert spent New Year's in Ottawa with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bourk.

GUIDES AND BROWNIES

The ladies auxiliary to the Schreiber Guides and Brownies held their regular meeting in the Catholic Parish Centre and it was decided to hold the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet on February 22.

It was also agreed to accept girls, who will be seven years old by May 30, into the first Brownie pack. Registrations may be made with Mrs. Aurel Major, Galena Street. The Guides will be in charge of the banquet program.

Five girls were accepted in the first Schreiber brownie pack at a ceremony in the Catholic parish centre, the leaders being Mrs. Arlene Conley, Mrs. Lynn Boon and Mrs. Audrey McKay.

Mrs. Mary Shack, the commissioner, spoke briefly, saying a new division Girl Guides, to be known as the Superior Division is being formed. The following towns will be included in it: Schreiber, Terrace Bay, Marathon, Manitowadge, Caramat, Long Lac, Geraldton, Nakina, Red Rock and Nipigon.

The new crest will have three colours and the girls are asked to submit ideas for the new crest.

LEGION CHRISTMAS PARTY

Eighty-five children were given gifts by Santa at the Legion Christmas party on Sunday afternoon, also oranges and candy, and served sandwiches and pop.

At the end of the program Mrs. Irene Morin was presented with a bountiful Christmas hamper by Santa. Working at the occasion were Mesdames Iris Lidkea, Bea McCuaig, Earline Johnson, Lillian McDonald, Ruth Hiller, Joan Costall, Etta Gray, Myra Holmes, Venita McKenna, Lilyan Christie, Georgina Davis, Pat Moore, and Barbara Smart. With Frank McKenna in the starring role as the jolly saint.

Following the children's party, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lidkea entertained the workers, with many toasts to Mrs. Lidkea who has convened the kids party since it began many years ago.
