

COLE & ANDREW DOUBLE RING CEREMONY

ON April 8th, in a double ring ceremony in St. Andrew's United Church in Schreiber, Rev. E.C. Prinselaar solemnized the marriage vows of Harriet Eve Cole, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Harry Cole of Schreiber, and Gary Russell Andrews of Schreiber, son of Mr. & Mrs. Charles Andrews, of Bishop's Falls Newfoundland.

Mrs. George Lengyel was the organist and the church was adorned with white lillies for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white silk lace combined with nylon sheer. The lace formed the bodice, lily point sleeves, and extended in deep points over the sheer skirt displayed over hoops. Silver sequins were embroidered on the stand-up collar and the yoke of the bodice. Her bouffant veil was caught to a cluster of white roses and she carried a cascade of red roses spiced with lily of the valley.

Robert Cole, brother of the bride, was the best man. Mrs. Robert Cole, who attended the bride, chose a soft yellow chiffon gown, with fitted bodice, short sleeves, mandarin collar, and softly-full skirt. Her bouquet was a shasta mum in white, edged with white lacelon.

Malcolm Cole, brother of the bride, was the usher.

For their wedding trip to White River and other points in the district, the bride donned a blue pant suit, topped by a short leopard jacket. They will make their home in Schreiber.

The wedding dinner was given in St. Andrew's Church hall. The wedding cake, iced in pale blue, with white roses edging the three tiers, was topped with a bride and groom under an arch of orange blossoms, with doves holding the two wedding rings.

During the evening a party for relatives and friends was held in the home of the bride's parents.

For the wedding the Bride's mother chose a pale blue skimmer, with contour seaming, topped with fur jacket her hat and accessories in white, and her corsage of pink carnations and lily of the valley.

Among those attending the wedding from out of town were Mrs & Mr. Robert Cole, with Debbie, Cindy Bonnie, Carrie Lee, and Robbie of Manitouwadge, Mr. & Mrs. Aubrey Andrews, and Keith Andrews of White River.
