PHILLIPS FUNERAL

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jack Phillips age 85, whose death occurred suddenly on April 11, in Thunder Bay, was conducted on April 14 in St. Andrew's United Church in Schreiber by the Rev. E.C. Prinselaar.

Mrs. George Lengyel was the organist, the senior choir leading in singing the hymns Rock of Ages and Unto the Hills.

The honorary pall bearers were F.V. Harness, Gino Caccamo, George Walsh, Bruce Simon, Harry Costall, and Jack Bryson.

The active bearers were George Riley, Len Crockford (Terrace Bay), Bill Weaver (White River), Alec Gordon, Norman Glad, and Len Hiller, Interment was in the Schreiber cemetery.

Mrs. Phillips' immediate survivors are her daughter Ruth (Mrs. Harry Nevins, Toronto) her son Burton, of Schreiber, and five grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband in Feb. 1971, Mrs. Phillips was born Mary Egheline McLean, in Alberton, P.E.I., But she was always called Eed by her husband and friends. She came to Schreiber 52 years ago and was that rare individual here who supported all organizations and belonged to none, except her church. Her whole life belonged to her husband and family, and during her husband's long career in politics and other civic enterprises she was a welcoming, gracious hostess for him whatever the occasion, and seemingly, always prepared, however short the notice was.

Attending the service from out of town were Mrs. Harry Nevins, Toronto, Mrs. Min Bryant, Thunder Bay, and many friends from Terrace Bay and Rossport.
