

STORY BEHIND STAINED WINDOW REVIEWED

With Mother's Day taking place early in May, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Community Church invited the members of the Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. McKague, to join in with them as they met in the Sanctuary of the Church on Monday evening, for the Worship service. The stained glass window, the focal point for the worship was "Suffer Little Children". Mrs. Pam Jones told the story behind the window, and explained that it had been donated to the Church back in 1961-62 when Mr. Sam Boyd, Sr. was the superintendent. At that time, the children of the Sunday school expressed a desire to help beautify the sanctuary, and each child brought a quarter, with the Sunday school supplying the remainder and they installed this beautiful window.

The Junior Choir led by Mrs. McKague sang three numbers. Mrs. A. McKechnie read a suitable poem, "A Tribute to Motherhood".

The regular meeting was chaired by President, Mrs. G. Soughton, who welcomed all the members and the Junior choir, who were guests for the first part of the evening. Mrs. J. Ferrier read an amusing story on Mother's Day by Stephen Leacock.

Mrs. H. Brooks exhibited the art of cake decorating and each junior choir member was allowed to decorate a cup cake and then take it home.

During the business portion of the meeting, Mrs. Soughton thanked Mrs. Jones and Mrs. McKechnie for their worship service. She also thanked Mrs. Brooks for her artful display of cake decorating.
