

BONN-DORLAND VOWS EXCHANGED

- Webb Photo Service

St. Peter's Church, Trenton, Ontario was decorated with Vases of Yellow Daisies and Iris when Bonnie Mary Dorland daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terence Dorland, Terrace Bay became the bride of Dr. James Richard Bonn son of Mr. Jack Bonn, Trenton, Ontario. Father Linette officiated with Mr. William Long as soloist.

The Bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Chateau crepe gown with wrist length buttoned sleeves trimmed with guipure lace. The lace was carried through on the bodice emphasized by a satin ribbon at the empire waistline. A 12" ruffle followed the hemline of the skirt and long Cathedral train completing the elegant look of the period styled gown. The Bride carried a bouquet of yellow and white Orchids and yellow ribbon streamers. Her headpiece was a halo cape and a two tier silk illusion veil.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Janet Mirchison, maid of honour, Miss Susan Maddock, Miss Janet Bonn (sister of the groom), bridesmaids, Miss Tammy Bonn (sister of the groom) flower girl, and Master John Bonn (son of Mr. John Bonn), ring bearer. The bridesmaids wore blue cotton voile gowns and tiny yellow rosette trim emphasizing the waistline inset from which fell gathered skirts to the floor, and were trimmed with ruffles to co-ordinate the wedding gown. The girls carried cascades of yellow and white daisies. The flower girl wore ankle length white swimm dot gown and blue smocking on bodice and carried a nosegay of yellow and white daisies. Master John Bonn, ring bearer, wore a white suit and pale blue silk shirt and matching ascot.

Attending the groom were Dr. John Bonn, groomsman and Dr. Bruce Laughlin, Dr. Ken Reynolds were ushers.

At a reception held at the Four Season's Hotel, Belleville

Ont., the bride's mother wore a pink French imported suit and white accessories and white cymbidium orchid. The groom's mother wore a cerise wilk jersey dress, with draped bodice and beige accessories and also a beige cymbidium orchid.

For their wedding trip to the Barbados the bride donned a white knitted dress and matching jacket in red, white and blue. They will reside at 140 Erskin Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

Out-of-town guests included - Dr. and Mrs. Ken Reynolds, New Westminster, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Buss, Orchard Park, Buffalo; Miss Betty Ryan, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dorland, St. Hilaire, Que.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown, Prince Albert, Sask.; Shirley Ann Brown, Miami, Florida and others from Thunder Bay, Kingston, Toronto and Dr. A.G. Dorland, Wellington, Ont.
