COST OF EDUCATION IRKS TAXPAYERS

- Anger Stretches from Terrace Bay to Manitowadge.

The following article was taken from the Thunder Bay Times-News, August 5th, 1972 edition, written by Bryan Eddington, Staff Writer: -

" Many taxpayers along the north shore of Lake Superior are angry at their regional board of education and the provincial government that established it.

Lake Superior Board of Education controls schools over a 120-mile strip from Schreiber to Manitowadge. Taxpayers say the vast distances, top-heavy administration and excessively high salaries are hurting their pockets.

"The board of education is superfluous and extravagant", snapped Joe Adamo, a Terrace Bay
