

SCHREIBER HYDRO RATES REVISED

While the cost of just about every other commodity has been soaring, Schreiber Hydro rates have been held to a minimum. To do so any longer would restrict the extension and improvement to plant and equipment essential to the provision of a high standard of service. The new rates are at the lowest possible level and electricity remains the customer's best bargain.

Rates effective on bills issued on and after October 1st, 1972 applies as follows:

Monthly Domestic Rate October 1/72

GUSUL - WALKER VOWS EXCHANGED

St. Andrew's United Church, Schreiber was beautifully decorated on Saturday, June 14th as Miss Norma Rowena Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walker, Schreiber became the bride of Mr. Gary Grant Gusul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gusul Terrace Bay. Rev. E.C. Prinselaar officiated at the four o'clock ceremony with Miss Sharon Smith as solist and Miss Wendy Weaver accompanying her.

The Bride, given in marriage by her father looked lovely in a formal gown of silk Ligoda, semi full skirt softly gathered into the waist with an extended train at back, centered at waist with a large self bow. The hemline of the skirt was bordered with Alincon lace and appliqued at front of skirt with same Fitted bodice trimmed with an overlay of matching lace highlighted the high neckline with satin band collar overlayed with lace. Full length fitted sleeves bordered at wrist with lace and headdress of a large rosette centered with pearlized droplets with streamers at each side centered with pearls. Her veil of bouffant silk illusion edged with matching lace edging and bouquet of pink cascade roses completed her outfit.

Maid of honour, Miss Linda Nesbitt, Bridesmaids Mrs. Ron Stuart (sister of the bride), Miss Melanie Ross and flower girl Kimi Lynn Stuart were gowned in a formal, empire, long sleeved turquoise dress of satin with a skirt overlay of floral nylon sheer, trimmed with velvet ribbon. White baskets with coloured roses and lily of the valley and white picture hats accented their gowns.

Best man was Mr. Larry Power and ushers were Mr. Ron Stuard (brother-in-law of the bride) and Mr. Jim Figliomeni.

For the wedding dinner in the Schreiber Town Hall, the Toast to the Bride was presented by best man, Larry Power. The wedding cake was cut at a reception held in the Moose Hall, Terrace Bay.

The bride's mother received wearing a white fortrel street length dress with navy trim and navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a beige street length dress with matching coat and accessories of antique brown and a coral pink rose corsage.

For a honeymoon trip to Minnesota and South Dakota the bride chose a lime green two pice fortrel suit trimmed with white, white accessories and a softpink rose corsage.

The newlyweds will reside at 224 MacDonald Ave., Terrace Bay.
