

PSYCHOLOGY TAUGHT IN TERRACE BAY/SCHREIBER

Psychology 3d6-Educational Psychology will be taught this winter in Terrace Bay/Schreiber by Dr. Alan Krischev who is currently chief psychologist for The Lakehead Board of Education.

Dr. Krischev was born and received his early education in Pennsylvania. His graduate studies have been at the University of New Hampshire and the University of Windsor, where the academic performance of French and English bilingual studies was the topic of his doctoral dissertation. He has also written intensively on educational theory and testing

The course in Educational Psychology which Dr. Krischev will teach is concerned with the application of psychological principles to education with special emphasis on growth and development, learning, personality, teaching, guidance and psychological measurement. The prerequisite for this course is a first-year university psychology course. Registration is at Terrace Bay High School on September 11th from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

This course will commence September 29 and will continue on October 21st and every second weekend thereafter.
