COUNCIL QUOTES

Reeve Cavanaugh welcomed a delegation of Crossing Guards to the first regular meeting of Town Council for the fall season. Mesdames Lynn Walsh, Ricki Johnson and Marilyn Moher had requested permission to attend the meeting, in order to ask for an increase in salary, giving as their reasons the responsibility they felt, long hours and a need for different clothing for inclement weather. John Mikus, Road Superintendant, gave a verbal report on the condition of Township roads, drainage and storm sewers, and commented on the recommendations to correct the drainage problem on Lakeview Drive in particular.

Police Chief, D. Barnett gave his report for the month.

Going into regular business of Council, the members who attended the Industrial Development Seminar, Clerk-Treasurer, W. Hanley, Councillors, R. Sinotte and R. Bray, with Bank Manager R. Buckley, stated they felt the seminar was well worth attending. Representation from all the municipalities in the district was considered strong.
