LIBERALS ORGANIZE FOR ELECTION CAMPAIGN

Members of the Terrace Bay Liberal Association met last week at the home of the group's president, Ed Cavanaugh, to prepare for the October 30th federal election. The local Liberals plan an active and interesting agenda of events to achieve the re-election of Keith Penner, the present Member of Parliament, who is again running as the Liberal candidate in this riding. Dick Baron was appointed Campaign Chairman for the town, and Michael Anderson was named Publicity Chairman.

To give the people of Terrace Bay an opportunity to meet their M.P. in person, it was decided that a "Meet-the-Candidate" evening be held on Tuesday in the Recreation Center with Mr. Penner in attendance to discuss local problems, to explain government policy, and just to say hello to his constituents. An invitation was to be extended to all residents of Terrace Bay to attend this informal gathering.

Anyone interested in giving his support to the Liberal Campaign in town should contact either Dick Baron (8 25-3830) or Michael Anderson (8 25-3637).
