

Ruby Rebekah Lodge - cont'd from page 14

Mrs. Agnes Bryson presented Mrs. Hamilton with her Past Noble Grand Jewel.

Following the meeting, lunch was served by the Topaz social committee.

GRAND MASTER VISITS SCHREIBER LODGE

Glen Wanamaker of Port Perry, Grand Master of the Oddfellows, paid a visit to the Schreiber Lodge, the meeting starting with a supper in the Anglican Church Hall, the meal provided by the Rebekah Lodge who also attended the meeting. Mrs. Wanamaker accompanied her husband.

Mr. Wanamaker spoke chiefly on the work of C.P. and T. committee, and the present assistance and interest being given to Amethyst House at the Lakehead. He also stressed the importance of the annual youth Pilgrimage to the United Nations, sponsored by both Lodges and the most welcome hot dinner always served by the Schreiber group to the bus load of young people.

Among the guests from out of town were James Michael, DDGP; Norman Case, Wilson Stinson, PDD, grand master, Howard Pettit, DDGM and John Van Brunt, NDGM, all of Port Arthur Lodge #244.

MISS ELMA HAAPA HONOURED

Miss Elma Haapa, of the Schreiber Postoffice staff, was doubly honoured when W.J. Gavan, Area Postmaster, Thunder Bay, came to present her with a certificate marking her twenty-five years in the Public service and a pin signifying her twenty-five years' service in the local post office - there was also a pin in addition to the certificate for the Public Service record.

Mr. Gavan paid tribute to Miss Haapa's unfailing courteous service to the public and hoped that she would give more years to this important public position. Postmaster Russell Macadam and Mrs. Saima Willoughby both spoke of Miss Haapa's efficient and pleasant co-operation in the office. Photo below by I. McCuaig.
