

Golden Eagle - cont'd from page 7

The eagle dived down when he saw a rabbit. He put on his transparent eyelid. He went down. He got the rabbit. The transparent eyelid helps the eagle so his eyes won't water.

POLITICAL CANDIDATE ARE GUESTS IN GRADE THREE CLASSROOM

Last Friday, two of the three candidates for this riding in the recent federal election visited the Grade Three class of St. Martin's School. An invitation to all three candidates was extended by the teacher, Mrs. Bernadette Thompson, and her pupils. Keith Penner, Liberal candidate, spent some time with the students on Friday morning and Ike Mutch, NDP candidate, visited the class in the afternoon. Harvey Smith, Conservative candidate, was unable to accept the invitation because of other commitments.

The following are stores by the Grade Three pupils of their first encounters with political figures.

Mr. Penner lives in Ottawa. He came to visit us and he and Mrs. Penner got a picture taken with Mrs. Thompson. Mr. Penner told the class his address and his house number. Mr. Penner told us how many children he has in his family. Mr. Dube comes from Marathon. He came with Mr. Penner. Mr. Dube was just sitting down on a chair beside Tommy listening to the questions. Mr. Mutch comes from Nipigon. He is our cousin. Mr. Mutch talks
