Thunder Bay Riding

Bay riding in the Oct. 30th Election. Each of the students functioned as either poll clerks, scrutineers, or returning officers for the day. All the students, teachers and staff of the school were eligible to vote. The results of the election showed a marked similarity with those of the Terrace Bay polling division the following Monday. Of the 312 eligible voters at the school, 240 voted or approximately 80% which is about the same percentage turnout in Terrace Bay.
