REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICES

Remembrance Day Services were observed in Terrace Bay on November 11th, at 11 a.m. under the auspices of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223. A parade, led by Parade Marshal Alphonse Theriault, formed at the Recreation Centre and marched to the Cenotaph, accompanied by martial music played by the Terrace Bay Band. The Band, under the direction of Bert Lohr, added a great deal to the service. Father Greengrass gave the Invocation. Bert Lohr played the Last Post, as the flags were slowly lowered, and the fallen of two world wars were remembered in two minutes silence.

Many wreaths were laid by business establishments and organizations of the town.

In the evening, a dinner, catered by members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Legion was held in the Masonic Hall. Mr. E. Forgues was the guest speaker. President Dave Gunter was Master of Ceremonies.

A highlight of the evening was the handing over of a cheque for $1,000 from the Ladies Auxiliary to the Legion for the Building Fund. Jeannette Gunter, President of the Ladies Auxiliary turned the cheque over to President Dave Gunter.
