RECREATION NEWS

Joseph Macerollo Visit To Terrace Bay - Schreiber:

It should be pointed out that in addition to the sponsors on a flyer which was delivered door-to-door this past weekend, the TERRACE BAY-SCHREIBER SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD is one of the sponsors, which was omitted from the flyer.

The Terrace Bay-Schreiber Separate School Board, the Lake Superior School Board, the Ontario Arts Council, the Schreiber Recreation Department and the Terrace Bay Recreation Department are all sponsors of this visit.

Musical Workshop-Joseph Macerollo:

On Thursday evening, January 18th, Mr. Macerollo will be available to meet with anyone interested in the community to discuss informally the field of music. He will be in Room 104, of the Terrace Bay Campus and the informal musical workshop will begin at 7:00 p.m. The workshop is free and you do not have to register for it.

Upholstery Workshop:

The Terrace Bay Recreation Department will be sponsoring an Upholstery Workshop from Monday, January 29th to Friday, February 2nd, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. in the Craft Room of the Recreation Center. Registration fee for this course will be $7.00 per person and all participants must be members of the Terrace Bay Recreation Association. This particular workshop is limited to 10 people and since the course is already filled, the Recreation Office will be accepting additional names as there is a possibility of operating a second course. If you are interested in taking an Upholstery course, register immediately.

All participants for the Upholstery workshop will be notified of a special meeting to be held to order materials and find out more about the course. Instructor for the course is Eva Connors.

Hockey Action This Week:

Hockey action locally this week involves our local Intermediates when they host Heron Bay on Friday, January 19th and Manitouwadge on Sunday, January 21st.

Our local Intermediates are close to first place in the league and two victories this weekend would guarantee first place. Why not plan to attend the games and support our local Intermediates.

1973 Recreation & Swim Pool Discs:

The 1973 discs have arrived and will be available to the public hopefully by January 24th. In the meantime, all 1972 discs can be used for all activities. A notice will appear in next week's News advising all Recreation and Swim Pool members how they can receive their new discs. Watch for details of this next week.

Junior Badminton:

The second session of the Junior Badminton programme will be held this coming Saturday, January 20th, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, at the Terrace Bay Campus Auditorium.
