interested in knowing if there will be any interest charges.

The Board had a number of questions they wanted answered in relation to the agreement, and the Administrator will put these in writing to the Provincial Authorities.

A number of agreements between the Board and tenants of the building as well as heating agreements will be negotiated once the main agreement is signed. There will be a further meeting of the Board and Provincial Authorities and their respective legal advisors to finalize the agreements. All remodelling plans will be circulated to the Board, Staff and Resident's Council for comments and recommendations.

The Board dealt with temporary appointments of personnel to the Terrace Bay Project as well as Department Supervisors' Salary Schedule for Pinewood Court for 1973. Budgets will be prepared by the Administrator for both Terrace Bay and Pinewood Court for 1973, for the Board's review at the next meeting.

Mr. Lawrence Crawford, Director of the Homes for the Aged, who had planned to attend the meeting was not able to be present because of the flu bug, Alex Daneff, Board Member, was absent as well for the same reason. The Board has directed that all participating municipalities be sent minutes of all meetings.

Two applications for residence were approved for admission when space is available. This brings the waiting list to 20 with another 18 people on the list who have been placed in other accommodation.
