

What Caught My Eye - cont'd

Mrs. Janette Prouse said she and her husband had planned to have only two children, but, as she puts it, "they just kept on coming." She's planning on having another operation and wants her husband to have one too

Then there's the steelworker in St. Petersburg, Fla. who says he loves his dying wife, but he is divorcing her in an effort to regain lost welfare benefits. Last November the state cut off the $117 a month he had been receiving for his wife, who has multiple sclerosis and is confined to a nursing home. Without the aid, he says, he can't afford $500 a month to keep his wife in the nursing home. By getting the divorce, the old gentleman says his wife then will qualify for the benefits because she will then be without support. Since the aid was cut off he has amassed a $2,000 bill with the nursing home and can't afford to pay it ...

Winnie Lateu and Emil Peck of Hounslow, England had been playing bingo together for 10 years, with the agreement that if they ever won anything, they would split it. It worked out fine-until recently. Winnie finally won a biggie-the grand prize worth $2,585. Then she decided not to share it with Emily Emily sued and last week a U.K. court ordered Winnie to pay her half of the prize money-plus court costs, which was estimated at more than the remaining half Winnie had left for herself. Bet they don't go to the bingo together anymore !!!

Made my first trip across the pond (to Detroit) a couple of weeks ago to take in a hockey game (Red Wings and Buffalo Sabres). And if you don't think Detroit is as tough as they say, think again. You can't get into the front seat of a taxicab in Detroit. You get in the back seat-and there's a bulletproof glass between the front and back seats. How do you pay for the fare? Through a small revolving opening. You deposit your money and, if you have change coming back, the
