World Day of Prayer - cont'd

wide Day of Prayer, Alert in Our Time. Mrs. Helmink said that we must be alert to the needs of our loved ones, to our community, to the Global village and the undeveloped countries. She paraphrased the Sermon on the Mount, using it as a modern setting for the topic "Alert in Our Time". She ended by saying that we were joined together in true fellowship and Christian concern, trusting that we bring forth the flowers of love and charity, until we meet again next year.

Mrs. Lundberg thanked Mrs. Helmink

for her timely and inspirational message.

The collection was taken up by Mrs. M. Dorland and Mrs. P. Regis.

Tea was served in the Church hall. Next year's service will be held in St. Martin's Church.

LEGION BOWLING
