CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HONOURS NEW YEAR'S BABY

Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Hougesen were the recipients of many lovely gifts on Friday evening March 2nd when the Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce honoured them as the parents of the 1st 1973 baby.

A small group of members gathered with Mr. and Mrs. Hougesen in the Community Church basement where a most enjoyable dinner was served by the Community Church Ladies Auxiliary.

Mr. Ed Cavanaugh recited a humorous poem describing the actions of an expectant father. Reeve Roy Bray congratulated the proud parents and Mr. Dan Rafalant introduced Mrs. Eva Connors who on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce presented Mr. and Mrs. Hougesen with an appropriately engraved silver cup.

Mr. Hougesen thanked those who attended and all who had sent the many gifts.

GREG CHEPELSKY MOST IMPROVED SCOUT OF THE YEAR

The annual Boy Scout and Cub Father and Son banquet was held at the Community Church on February 23rd, catered by the Ladies of the Auxiliary, convened by Mrs. Lil Harris.

Head table guests included Father A. Greengrass, who said Grace; Rev. P. McKague, G. Puttock, Paul Malashewski, Chairman of Group Committee; D. Buckley Treasurer; Mrs. M. Vanderkam, Secretary; R. Wills, Area Commissioner; Mrs. C. Cvitkovich, District Commissioner, Girl Guides and Reeve Roy Bray.

The coveted shield for the most improved Boy Scout was presented to Greg Chepelsky by Paul Malashewski.

The dinner was followed by showing of films.
