

KINETTE MEMBER HONOURED

Mrs. Eva Gordon, a 20 year member of the Schreiber Kinettes, was honoured with a special presentation by Joyce Reid, the president, at a gala evening, when 18 Kinettes were initiated.

In the darkened room, the initiation ceremony was impressive as the long line of candidates lit the candle she was carrying from a centre taper and passed into a half circle formed at the end of the hall. This was followed by the presentation to each Kinette of a white ribbon by Peter Speziale, and a purple ribbon by Eva Fordon, after which Bruce Gordon, the Kinsmen president, spoke briefly on the significance of the ribbons, the aims and purposes of Kinsmanship, the appreciation of the support given by Kinettes, and congratulated the new members.

Following the ceremony, a cabaret evening was enjoyed.
