BANQUET ENDS HOCKEY SEASON

The Terrace Bay "Junior B" Superior Hockey team was honoured at a banquet held in the Community Church hall, prepared and served by the Mothers of the players.

President, Jimmy Figliomeni, said Grace and Gerry Dupas was Master of Ceremonies. After a delicious meal, the presentations took place.

The trophy to the highest scorer, donated and presented by Ernie Kettle, went to Mark Dashkewytch, who had to his credit, in twenty-two games, eighteen goals, twelve assists, for a total of thirty points.

Convener, Joe Heenan presented the trophy for Best Defenceman to Paul Malashewski, Jr.

Convener Paul Malashewski, Sr., presented the trophy for the Most Improved Player to R. Bolan.

President, Jimmy Figliomeni, donated and presented the trophy for the Most Valuable Player to Rick Hamilton.

A trophy anonymously donated for the Most Diligent Player (one who always gives 100% in all games and practices) went to R. Zwaresh presented by L. Kruger.

In the Players Presentation, Rick Hamilton on behalf of all the players, presented gifts to those men who give so much of their time without hope of an award, but satisfaction in seeing hockey well played - Les Kruger, Jim Figliomeni and Stan Zwaresh.

Master of Ceremonies called on the President for a few remarks and also Coach, Les Kruger. Gerry Dupas congratulated the boys, their coaches, parents, and the executive for a good season and wished them well in the 73-74 endeavours.

Mrs. Kruger, Mrs. Figliomeni, and Mrs. Zwaresh were given corsages on their arrival by Mark Dashkewytch and all the ladies who prepared the excellent meal were given a hearty round of applause.
