

TOPS CLUB HOLDS SPECIAL AWARDS NIGHT

Husbands and families of members of the Schreiber Terrace Bay Tops On I586 were special invited guests for their Special Awards Night on April 4th.

The Tops Club was started September 21st, 1972 and has a large enthusiastic membership which has enjoyed much success over the past few months.

There was a short meeting during which Weight Recorder, Rhea Beaulieu, reported the club had lost 1,439 pounds since September. Monthly awards were then presented, the highlight being the presentation of the trophy by Sheila Bosley, previous winner to new winner Sheila Dakin for "Best Weight Loss for the Month in all Divisions."

A presentation was made to the first KOPS Alma Moquin, who reached her Kops status on Awards Night.

Special awards were then presented by Leader, Helen Dooley to the following members deserving special recognition for "Best Weight Loses up to December 31, 1972:

Honourable mentions in their divisions went to: Lois Gilmour 13 lbs.; Rhea Beaulieu 21½ lbs.; Dorothy Coupal 31 lbs.; Runners-up Division Winners - presented with tops pin and certificates - Millie Glad 15 lbs.; Alma Moquin 23 lbs.; Linda Orlesky 17½ lbs.; Helen Dooley 48 lbs.

First Place Division winners, presented with a trophy and certificate - Gladys Anderson 16 lbs.; Margaret Drake 30½ lbs.; Yvonne Vienneau 37½ lbs.; Lois MacRae 50 lbs.; Runners up - "Best Weight Loss of the Year" presented with trophy - Helen Dooley 48 lbs.

First place winner "Best Weight Loss of the Year" - Lois MacRae 50 lbs. was presented with a trophy, tops pin, sash and corsage.

Members and guests then enjoyed piano selections, songs and skits and humorous poems written by various members and read by Paulette Gordon. Then to end the evening a diet buffet lunch with coffee, tea and punch was served and all agreed it had been a great evening, enjoyed by everyone.

A surprise presentation made during the evening was made to Helen Dooley on behalf of the Tops club for her dedication and leadership.
