crayons, string, boxes, wool, buttons, bottle-caps, etc..... These articles would be greatly appreciated and utilized for craft purposes.

We have scheduled our project start for the last week in June and its completion in August.

A massive scavenger hunt and collection of the junk material will be carried out in the near future. We are also in the process of contacting persons interested in sharing and demonstrating their creative interests in our Monday night sessions. Interested persons can call 825-3275 for further information.

Further advertising and details on the project will continue.
