MOBILE SAILING SCHOOL

The Ontario Sailing Association is offering to communities along the North Shore of Lake Superior the opportunity to learn basic sailing. The area reaches from Nipigon to Marathon, with Manitouwadge included for those who can take advantage of the program.

Each mobile sailing school unit consists of two qualified Canadian Yachting Association Sailing Instructors, a van, five Patrol Class sailboats, one motor boat, teaching aids and safety equipment.

Each student receives fifteen hours of instruction during the program. Those registered are divided into three groups.

The Sailing School will operate in Rosspoint using the facilities of the Rosspoint Recreation Centre as headquarters, from Monday, June 25th to Friday, June 29th.

High school students are requested to register for the 9 a.m. to 12 noon session, elementary school students for the 1:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. session, and adults for the 6 to 9 p.m. session.

All registration forms and registration fees must be submitted by Wednesday, June 13th to Charles Wilde, Lake Superior High School, Schreiber Campus, either by mail or directly to the high school office.

Transportation by bus will be provided for the morning and afternoon sessions.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

The annual cubs' father and son banquet was held in St. Andrew's church hall with Cy Pyke as M.C. Others at the head table were the Rev. Arthur Chabot, who said Grace, Tom Quinton, vice chairman, Peter Doig, treasurer and Bruce Gordon, president of the Kinsmen Club who sponsor the movement in Schreiber.

Mr. Pyke, who is chairman of the committee, proposed the toast to the Queen, and to Lord Baden Powell founder of Scouting.

Dominic Costa proposed the toast to the fathers, and his father, Albert, responded, thanking the leaders for the time and guidance.

Mr. Pyke gave formal praise to Akela - Mrs. Pat Moore and Joe Wills, assistant cub master adding it will be a great loss when Mr. Wills and his two sons, both cubs, leave for their home in Thunder Bay.

Cub Glen Korman presented a gift to Mr. Wills and cub Paul Moorey a gift to Mrs. Moore. Gifts were also presented to Mark and Joey Wills.
